Les Blow Trial - February 18, 2018

A blast of winter weather and a skiff of snow greeted the thirty riders who entered the annual Les Blow Trial at the Club's property in Metchosin. Cold weather and that bit of fresh snow made for very tricky conditions and higher than normal scores. Formerly known at the "Hangover Trial," it began in the mid 80's to "clear the heads" of those that partied too hard at the annual banquet. The Frank Baylis Trophy is used for the top expert in this event.

It was nice to see a few new members competing in their first competition. Angus Dougan rode his Dad's 1977 Yamaha TY 250 twin shock to 3rd in Intermediate, Angus's first trial in about 12 years!

Thank you to the committee of the day :- Brandon Volk, Dave Fair, Darcy Lalonde, Andrew Watson, Steve Mawer, Brent Sterzenbach, Kevin Ash, Hugh Williams, Rob Edmunds, Jayden Kurvers, Ernie Ferguson and of course Dean Parry for all of his hard work keeping our trails open!

Sign up and score keeping was handled by Ray Sutherland and Susan Fair and Vinnie's Gourmet Dogs had good food available.
